

Application to Prince William County Arts Council Advisory Board

Support the Arts in Prince William County—Become a Board Member!

PWC Arts Council seeks 11 new board members.

If you have a passion for the arts—including visual, performing, literary, Applied or theatrical—please consider joining the Prince William County Creative Arts Council Advisory Board today. To build on our board’s cultural diversity and be inclusive across the county, we encourage applications from mid-career professionals, young professionals, college students, Native/ Indigenous, Black, Latino/a/x, Asian/Pacific Islander, and LGBTQIA members of the community.

Board service requires a passion for the arts, the willingness to serve on one or more board committees, attend monthly meetings, assist with partnerships and artist recognition, ensure sound fiscal management of the organization, promote and attend programs and events, and to help promote the arts in all communities throughout the County.

The Nominating Committee will review applications and make contact with candidates, with board service beginning in July. To be considered for membership on the board, please complete the Prince William County Arts Council Application form and submit your resume to Herb Williams at hwilliams@pwcgov.org any time between June 1 and June 14, 2022.
